How do you use Credit or Consumer Reports?

In accordance with applicable federal and state laws, a credit report or other consumer report about you may be used to develop an insurance score. Your insurance score will be used to review your application for insurance and subsequent amendments and renewals. An insurance score uses information from your credit and/or consumer report to help predict how often you are likely to file claims and how expensive those claims will be. Insurance score information is then used to determine how much we will charge for insurance.

Items from a credit report that could affect an insurance score include payment history, number of revolving accounts, number of new accounts, and the presence of collection accounts, bankruptcies and foreclosures. We will use information provided by LexisNexis (formerly ChoicePoint), or an equivalent third party vendor, in connection with the development of your insurance score. You have the right to a free copy of the credit report or consumer report used to develop your insurance score, and you have the right to work with the credit reporting agency that provided it to correct information which may be inaccurate.

What is an extraordinary life circumstance and how might it apply to me?

If an insurance score was used to rate your policy, you have the right to request in writing that we consider extraordinary life circumstance in connection with the use of your insurance score. PURE is an insurer authorized to do business in certain states that allow insurance score to be used to rate risks for a policy of personal insurance. In those states where permitted, PURE may, on written request from a consumer, provide exceptions to its rules for a consumer who has experienced, and whose credit information has been directly influenced by, events considered extraordinary circumstances such as; 1. Catastrophic illness or injury; 2. Death of a spouse, child or parent; 3. Divorce; 4. Identity theft; 5. Temporary loss of employment; 6. Military deployment overseas; 7. Total or other loss that makes your home uninhabitable; 8. Other events determined by PURE.

In the case that we receive an extraordinary life event submission, we may, but are not required to, do any of the following: 1. Require you to provide reasonable written and independently verifiable documentation of the event. 2. Require you to demonstrate that the event had direct and meaningful impact on your credit information. 3. Require that such request be made no more than sixty days after the date of the application for insurance or the policy renewal. 4. Grant an exception despite the fact that you did not provide the initial request for an exception in writing. 5. Grant an exception where you ask for consideration of repeated events or we have considered this event previously. 6. Assign a neutral insurance score.

Important Notice Regarding the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA)

Federal law requires all insurers to provide this notice.

In accepting this insurance it is understood that as part of our underwriting procedure, one or more investigative consumer reports were obtained. 1. Demand mediation of the claim, prior to taking legal action. The request must state:
 - a. Why mediation is being requested; and

Only one mediation may be requested for each claim, unless all parties agree to further mediation. A party demanding mediation shall not be entitled to demand or request mediation after a suit is filed relating to the same facts already mediated.

The parties must jointly appoint a mutually acceptable mediator. If the parties are unable to agree upon the appointment of a mediator within 7 days after a party has given notice of a demand to mediate the dispute, any party may apply to the JAMS Mediation Service, or such other organization or person agreed to by the parties in writing, for appointment of a mediator.

Each party will:

- a. Pay its own appraiser; and
- b. Bear the other expenses of the appraisal and umpire equally.

2. Pays any premium due under this policy on demand if you have neglected to pay the premium; and
3. Submits a signed, sworn statement of loss within 60 days after receiving notice from us of your failure to do so.

If we decide to cancel or not renew this policy, we will notify the lien holder at least 10 days before the date cancellation or non-renewal takes effect.

1. We are subrogated to all the rights of the lien holder granted under the lien on the yacht; or

2. At our option, we may pay to the lien holder the whole principal on the loan plus any accrued interest. In this event, we will receive a full assignment and transfer of the lien and all securities held as collateral to the debt.

S. Automatic Termination

If we offer to renew or continue this policy and you or your representative do not accept, this policy will automatically terminate at the end of the current policy period. Failure to pay the required renewal or continuation premium when due shall mean that you have not accepted our offer.

T. Other Termination Provisions

1. We may deliver any notice instead of mailing it. Proof of mailing of any notice shall be sufficient proof of notice.
2. If this policy is cancelled, you may be entitled to a premium refund. If so, we will send you the refund. The premium refund, if any, will be computed pro rata. However, making or offering to make the refund is not a condition of cancellation.
3. The effective date of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period.

U. No Benefit to Bailee

We will not recognize any assignment or grant any coverage that benefits a person or organization holding storing or moving property for a fee regardless of any other provision in this policy.

We may require an assignment of rights of recovery for a loss to the extent that payment is made by us.

If an assignment is sought, an insured must sign and deliver all related papers and cooperate with us.

The deductibles shown on the Declarations Page and in the Schedule on this Endorsement are the amounts for each covered loss you will pay and for which there will be no payment under this policy. There are two deductibles for Property Coverage shown on your Declarations Page:

- a. A loss due to a hurricane is subject to the Hurricane Deductible shown on the Declarations Page; and
- b. A loss due to any other peril covered by this policy is subject to the All Other Perils deductible shown on your Declarations Page.

The deductible shown on your Declarations Page for all other perils will not apply in the event of a total loss or total theft of the yacht.

If a loss occurs to your tender only, the All Other Perils deductible will be $250 for each covered loss, regardless of the number of tenders.

In the event of a covered loss only to the electronic navigational equipment, electronic communications or electronic security systems for your yacht, no deductible applies. This waiver of deductible does not apply to electronic engine management systems.
